

A TIMELINE OF CAPTAIN CANARY

usual good form, and could not be blamed for any of the goals scored against them.

This week the "linnets" and "canaries" play their return league match, and there will probably be a very large crowd on the Newmarket Road Ground to witness the contest. The Uits will make a great effort to turn the tables on their lively opponents, and will most likely be successful, as the Lynn men are never seen at their best on the Norwich ground.

The Churchmen had a fairly easy task against Beccles Caxton. A redeeming feature in a one-sided game was the marvellous display by Warren, who kept out a large number of most dishes.

First mention of Norwich City Football Club as the Canaries in a newspaper article

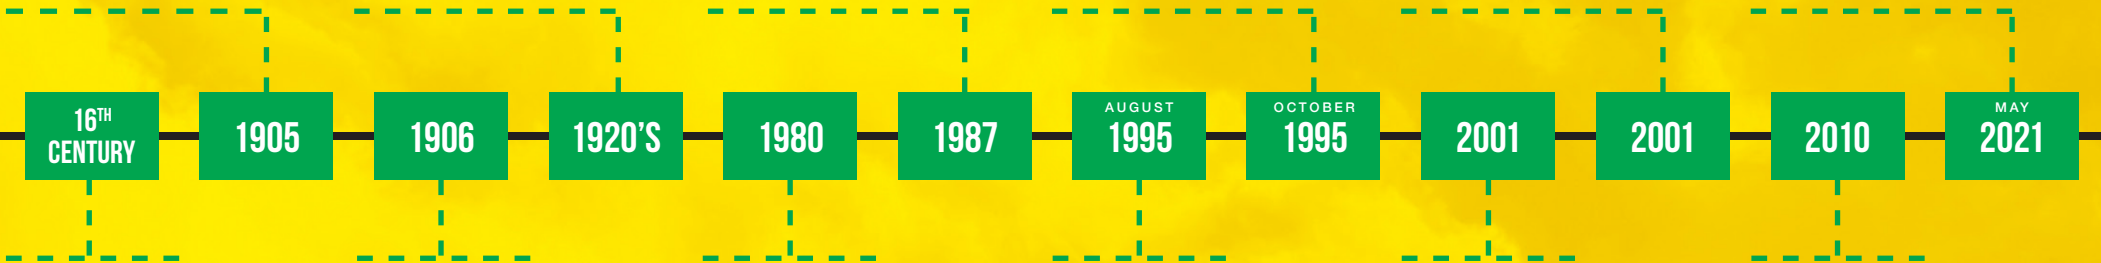

The Canary and his friend Dumpling first appeared as a regular cartoon in The Pink-Un

Canary Costume redesigned

Captain Canary redesigned and joined by Splat the Cat

Captain Canary is joined by the Digital Phone

Captain Canary announces his retirement and is replaced by a younger Captain Canary!

Many European immigrant weavers settling in Norfolk brought canaries with them. By 1900 the area had become known for breeding the birds

The 'Canaries' nickname was in common use

The Canary and dumpling became official mascots for the club

Captain Canary appeared for the first time

Captain Canary finds love when he meets Camilla

Captain Canary is joined by AVIVA Lemur

